

Diversity In Real Estate

The Real Estate Associate Program (Project REAP) is the leading diversity initiative supported by 6 major real estate industry associations: ULI, ICSC, BOMA, NAIOP, National Multi-Housing Council and the National Apartment Association. REAP screens and then educates talented minority professionals who are interested in pursuing careers and opportunities in the commercial real estate sector. REAP is pleased to announce the return of its 10-week educational and networking program in partnership with JP Morgan Chase and other national sponsors. Qualified minority applicants with a bachelors degree & minimum of 3 years work experience may apply. No prior real estate experience is required.***

Classes are taught by commercial real estate executives from firms such as:

- JP Morgan Chase, Walmart, L+M Development Partners, Colliers International, McDonald's and more
- Classes cover financial & market analysis, shopping center investment, multifamily development & more
  - Companies such as JP Morgan Chase may potentially hire talent from the class participants

Date: September 7th thru November 16th from 6:00pm – 9:00pm (20 classes)

Location: 1221 Ave. of the Americas (btw W. 48th & W. 49th Sts.), NY, NY 10020

*Visit www.projectreap.org & apply online beginning 6/30/17!

(REAP encourages applicants from other leading multicultural organizations such as CURE, CUP, MLT, AREAA, Prospanica, NBMBAA, Lambda Theta Phi, AKAs, AABANY, Delta Sigma Theta, NYREC, etc.)

Platinum Sponsor

JPMORGAN CHASE & CO.

